

Aristotelian Biology and Christian Theology in the Early Empire

Lecture Room, Faculty of Philosophy, Oxford
11th-12th January 2019

PROGRAM

Friday 11 th January		Saturday 12 th January
14.00 – 14.30	Registration and Welcome
14.30 - 15.45	“Aristotelian Matter and the Early Christian Doctrine of Bodily Resurrection” Anne Siebels Peterson Chair: Anna Marmodoro	9.15 – 10.30	“Aristotle (and Galen) in Nemesius’ On the Nature of Man” Teun Tieleman Chair: Albert Rigolio
15.45 - 16.00	Coffee Break	10.30 - 10:45	Coffee Break
16.00 - 17.15	“Embodied Intelligence in Aristotle’s Natural Science and Embryology” Sophia Connell Chair: Christopher J. Austin	10.45 – 12.00	“Natural Sciences and Anthropology in Didymus the Blind’s Commentaries on the Bible: A Possible Aristotelian Influence” Marco Zambon Chair: Octavian Gabor
17.15 - 17.30	Break	12.00 – 12.15	Break
17.30 - 18.45	“The Relationship between Soul and Body according to Origen’s De principiis, in the light of protology and eschatology” Samuel Fernandez Chair: Vito Limone	12.15 - 13.30	“The Use of Aristotle’s Biology in Methodius of Olympus’ De Resurrectione” Dawn LaValle Norman Chair: Anna Marmodoro
19.15	Conference Dinner Pierre Victoire	14.00	Lunch The Royal Oak